BALL STRUGGLE.

By Associated Press to the Journal.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—The football warriors of the universities of Pennsylvania and Harvard meet on Franklin field today in their annual struggle.

First half of score: Harvard 5; Pennsylvania 0.
The game ended in a free fight for the possession of the ball. A Pennsylvania man ran off the gridiron with the ball, which Harvard wanted for a trophy.
Half a dozen men of the two teams were shoving each other.

The final score stood: Harvard 16, Pennsylvania 0.
Nov. 4.—First half: University of Michigan 16, University of Virginia 0.

Princeton, Nov. 4.—First half: Princeton 6, Brown 0.
West Point, Nov. 4.—First half: Yale 6, West Point 0.

Press Opinions.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily News asserts that since the war began the Boer secret service fund has increased to £10,000 monthly and that pro-Boer journalists are bribed at wholesale. None of these rumors are yet confirmed, and little attention is paid to them.

The Standard publishes a dispatch from Luxembourg which says:
"Until within a few days, Dr. Leyds has been in telegraphic communication with Pretoria, through an indirect diplomatic channel, by means of which he has been able to inform the Transvaal of the supposed British plan of advancing through the Orange Free State."

With a view to anticipating this movement, the Boers will endeavor to capture or isolate Ladysmith, and then press on to Durban, where they would be able to prevent a British debarkation, while the main Boer army would hasten to retrace its steps to defend the line of the Orange river."

At Plymouth it is rumored that the cannon squadron will be ordered to the Cape, where a great naval force is to be concentrated, with a view to establishing a cordon from the mouth of the Orange river to Delagoa bay to prevent the landing of supplies for the enemy, and with a view also, if necessary, of landing guns to assist the British force.

Salem-Corvallis.

The Salem football team and a large delegation of lovers of college sports went to Corvallis today to play a practice game with the college team there.

Albert R. Oliver, the coach, and Van Winkle, manager, accompanied the boys.
Next Saturday the first intercollegiate match taken place at Forest Grove, Salem playing Pacific college. The Salem line-up today is as follows:

Jarvis, Center.
Williams, Right guard.
Reid, Left tackle.
Young, Right tackle.
Ginger, Left end.
Bonham, Right end.
Holt, Quarter back.
Savage, Left half.
Bishop, Right half.
Jensup, Full back.
Murray, Lucas, Seelye, Arms, Baxter, Sims, substitutes.

Coach Oliver has only had two days to work with his men, when the team should have had training for a month past. The games will now follow so quickly that there is scarcely time to bring out the real qualities of the Salem team. It is the best and strongest team that has ever been brought together here. Most of the players have seen several seasons work.

Experience shows that it takes about two years training together as one team to bring out its qualities, while special training is needed in bringing out the quality of individual players. Quick work by individuals, and intelligent team work is what counts at football. The best Salem players will try in the different positions today.

The Hop Market.

A Salem hop buyer quotes following as the ruling quotations at close of this week:

Fancy hops 11 to 12 cents.
Prime to choice 10 cents.
Mediums 8 to 9 cents.
Lower grades not yet wanted.
There are few strictly fancy or extra choice hops to be had in Oregon. The conditions for making the crop were not favorable for a perfect product. In the rush to save the hops from mildewing and other damage from moisture, they were either picked too green, or under-cured or overcured.

There has been a rush of hop-growers at Salem Friday and Saturday and the pressure of growers to sell is very strong.
There is no doubt but this is the critical time in the hop situation at Salem. The mills and wires are bringing more inquiry the past few days than for weeks past and there is no doubt but that both demand and prices are stiffening. If the grower can get a fair price, the quality of his product, all things considered he had better take it, but all growers, whether they sell or not should remain in the hop growers association and they will improve their situation materially.

There is no doubt but that the condition of the market is on the mend. It is on the improve and all growers can afford to contribute to such a condition of things. Join the association, subscribe for its stock, uphold its methods. The Lord helps those who help themselves, the hop growers included.

Late Hop News.

There has been only one sale of hops here this season at Chehalis the plant crop, 44 bales to Horst Bros., at 8 1/2 cents. Ten cents was offered for one small lot of choice hops. State Inspector J. N. Fernandez was called in in one case early in the week to settle the question as to the quality of the Larson two-ton lot on which George Rose had a 12-cent contract. The inspector graded them "common," or third grade. They had been picked too green.
Rose took them at 8 1/2 cents. Rose also had two four-ton contracts with the Roundtrees. Neither of these lots was up to standard, and the dealer took enough of them at 8 1/2 cents to make good his advance money. Francis Donahoe is plowing up his 31-acre yard, and will plant an 18-acre yard on better hop ground.

Hop growers are beginning to feel quite discouraged at the condition of the market for their crop in Lane county. About 9 cents a pound is all they are offered, and buyers do not seem to want them at all, although they say the samples are first class.
No sales are being made.

A Farewell Party.

A very pleasant farewell party was given in honor of Mrs. Ella B. Mc-Dowell at the home of Mrs. Metta Davis, 347 High street, last Wednesday evening.
The Presbyterian choir and orchestra were present, and rendered several of their favorite selections. The guests were then entertained by vocal and instrumental solos, recitations, games and a sketch contest, in which Mrs.
Fred Wiggins, carried off first prize.
After a delightful luncheon all joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again," and Mrs. McDowell received a hearty farewell from each as they took their departure at about four o'clock.

Those present were: Mrs. Ella B.
McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Park, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wiggins, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Albert, Mrs. F. C. Small, the Misses Lizzie Whitlock, Myrtle Marsh, Alice Temple, Angie McCulloch, Elma Weller, Beatrice Shelton, May Tillson, Florence Eilson, Nellie Brown, Edith Ketchum, Allena Mellen, Metta Davis, Messrs. Otto Wilson, Will Ketchum, R.
Whiting, Mr. D. Root, R. B. Hansen, T.
Hollister, T. Hankins, D. A. Dinsmoor.

County Warrants Called.
County Treasurer Downing has called all county warrants up to Oct. 31st 1908.

Washington Troops.
Four companies of the Washington regiment went through Salem this afternoon in a two section train. They had two Filipino boys with them and seemed to be happy to be nearing home at last.
There were no flags on state house, no band at the depot and only about thirty people happened to be there altogether.
But the evergreen state boys did not let us know they were coming and so no reception could be arranged.

Judge Boise's court all day Friday's and was not concluded. The testimony was all heard and argument will be made at 10 a. m. next Monday.

A couple of docket entries were also made:
Leo Willis, insolvent, M. L. Chamberlin, assignee, assignment; demurrer filed; case to be further considered.
Mary A. Ramp, executrix, plaintiff, vs. F. C. Giobin, et al, defendants; confirmation and objections; argued and submitted.

To an idea is generally a happy man.
The man who hangs to the notion that he wants a superb smoke, and then gets La Corona cigars to gratify his delight, is certainly a happy people.

Value of Good Descriptions.

Sherriff Durbin has commenced publishing a list of property for sale for delinquent taxes. Owners of such property will hereafter be obliged to pay the costs of advertising in addition to the amount due for taxes. The costs this year will be much larger than usual for the reason that full descriptions have been made of every parcel of property advertised. Heretofore very imperfect descriptions have been given and it has been impossible to find bidders at a tax sale. If the description given in the notice is not certain enough to enable the purchaser to identify his property the title is imperfect, and for that reason few care to bid except on tracts properly described.

In the last tax sale only a small percent of the property found bidders. In anticipation of a repetition of that experience, the county court this year employed clerks to correct the assessment rolls by inserting correct descriptions.
It is expected that there will this year be bidders enough to assure the collection of nearly all the delinquent taxes.

New Street Crossing.

Street Commissioner Frizzell is having lumber hauled to the ground for new street crossings wherever the same are needed in all parts of the city, and a gang of men will replace all wornout cross walks with new ones. This work is all being done out of the road fund, and will not cost the city any cash. All the city's bridge work is also being done out of the road tax, as well as blocks and blocks of street graveling.
